

Accommodation

ACCOMMODATION

- The term accommodation refers to a room, building or place which provides shelter for a person to stay, work, sleep or live.

TYPES OF ACCOMMODATION

- Hotel: The hotel has a minimum of ten rooms. The majority of the rooms must be single or double.
- Motel: Hotel located by the road. Such facilities must offer parking space.
- Camping: Guarded facilities where guests can stay in the tents, cars or caravans.
- Boutique hotel: Elegant, luxurious facilities, often located in historic buildings.
- Bungalow: Small holiday houses, usually wooden, with a roof covered with palm leaves in exotic countries.
- Guesthouse: A private house offering accommodations to paying guests.

TYPES OF ROOMS

- Single room
- Double room
- Twin room
- Triple room
- Suite

HOTEL STAFF

- Manager
- Housekeeper
- Receptionist
- Room attendant
- Chambermaid
- Doorman
- Porter

